Masonic Trivia and Education

By Ancient custom, the King was always covered while his subjects were never covered in his presence. The American custom of the Master of the Lodge wearing a hat as a symbol of his authority is apparently a result of that ancient custom. Thought for the day: Not everything can be made sense of – 8,789 Words of Wisdom by Barbara Ann Kipfer

Quote of the Day “It is too common an Error, to invert the Order of Things; by making an End of that which is a Means, and a Means of that which is an End.” - William Penn in “Some Fruits of Solitude”

Puzzle: (Yesterday: Three people sent in an answer but only Wally George got. It was still the Pacific Ocean, Balboa just didn't know about it)

A turtle, gopher, and a hare are walking one behind the other in a straight line.

“I am first,” said the turtle.

“I am second,” said the gopher.

“I am first,” said the hare.

How can you explain these statements?
